Cheap Oifig Ealaíon Chomhairle Contae Mhaigh Eo, An tSeirbhís Leabharlainne agus Bailiúchán Jackie Clarke i mBéal an Átha, trí iomaíocht oscailte, an fisealaíontóir as Béal Easa Katie Moore mar Ealaíontóir Conaitheach le 1916 a chomóradh.

Thug an ceapachán am do Katie le taighde is le tuairimí faoi shaothar úr i dtaca le heachtraí Éirí Amach 1916 a fhorbairt trí chomhoibriú le Bailiúchán Jackie Clarke. Dúirt Katie nuair a bhí sí ag caint faoin saothar atá cruthaithe aici tráth na cónaitheachta “Tá mé i mbun saothar ealaíne a bheas mar chomaoín ar an sárbhailitheoir Jackie Clarke agus mar ghníomh cuimhne ar Éirí Amach 1916”.

Is deis uathúil é seo le cuairt threoraithe a thabhairt ar Bhailiúchán Jackie Clarke agus le roinnt de na déantáin a fheiceáil a spreag an saothar ealaíne a chruthaigh Katie Moore. Tabharfar cuairt in éis an turais ar an thaispeántas Paper Bloom in Oifigí Pobail Bhéal an Átha.

Mayo County Council Arts Office, Library Service and the Jackie Clarke Collection in Ballina appointed, through open competition, Foxford visual artist Katie Moore to be Artist in Residence to commemorate 1916.

The residency provided Katie with time to research and develop ideas, in the creation of a new art work in response to the events of the 1916 Easter Rising, by working with the Jackie Clarke Collection. When talking about the work she has created during her residency, Katie said “I’m making a piece of art that is an acknowledgement to the great collector Jackie Clarke and an act of memory for the 1916 Rising”.

This is a unique opportunity to have a guided visit of the Jackie Clarke Collection and to see some of the artifacts that inspired the artwork Katie Moore has created. The tour will be followed by a visit to the exhibition Paper Bloom in Ballina Civic Offices.

'Gift of the Gabby' - Scríofa agus á chur i láthair ag Niamh McGrath

'Gift of the Gabby' - Written and performed by Niamh McGrath

D'fhág Gabby post agus saol na cathrach bliain ó shin le dul abhaile chun aire a thabhairt dá máthair a bhí ag saothrú an bháis. Tá málaí Gabby dingthe uair amháin eile bliain dár gcionn, aistear eile ar na bocáin aici, le himeacht go brách ón saol a síleadh sí a raibh a taithí! Scaoilfidh sí gach rún linn ar dtús faoin gcrá a bhaineann le saol an bhaile bhig agus faoina bhfuil le fáil ann.

Oileadh Niamh McGrath in Amharclann Óige na Gaillimhe. Chuaigh a saothar is déanaí, The Ark Far Away From Me le Amy Conroy, ar camchuart náisiúnta. D'oibrigh sí leis an teilifís agus sna scannáin chomh maith. Chomhbhunaigh sí Pignut Theatre Co agus Lost Type Writer Productions. D'oibrigh Niamh i bhfad is i ngar le grúpaí pobail, scoileanna agus le hamharclanna óige i Maigh Eo agus i Sligeach, ag seiftiú is ag stiúradh saothar bunaidh.

Gabby left her job and life in the city one year ago to return home to care for her terminally ill mother. One year later, Gabby's bags are packed once again as she chooses to embark on another journey, leaving behind forever the home she thought she knew! But not before she shares with us the trials and tribulations of tolerating the small town and all it has to offer.

Niamh McGrath trained with Galway Youth Theatre. Her most recent work is with The Ark Far Away From Me by Amy Conroy, which toured nationally. She has also worked in TV and film. She co-founded both Pignut Theatre Co and Lost Type Writer Productions. Niamh has worked extensively with community groups, schools and youth theatres in Mayo and Sligo, devising and directing original work.
