27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (YEAR C) MASS DATES, TIMES & INTENTIONS

The month of October is also dedicated to the Holy Rosary. The month of October is a good time to commit to praying the Rosary every day. The Rosary will bring great peace and holiness to your life. It is a powerful instrument for conversion and is best method of honouring Mary.

'Increase our faith' is the prayer of the disciples in today's Gospel. It is a prayer that we all share especially in moments of doubt or worry.

WEEKEND MASS SCHEDULE REVIEW

Over the next number of weeks, there will be a count will be taken of numbers attending weekend Masses. Currently, there are 4 Masses celebrated at the weekend - Saturday vigils 6:30pm Glencorrib and 8pm Shrule and on Sunday 9:30am Glencorrib and 11am Shrule. It is no longer possible to ignore the low attendance at some of the Masses as well as the challenges in getting volunteers. Over the next number of weeks there will be a review if this number of Mass are any longer necessary. The primary way in which this will be explored is gauging the level of attendance at each Mass, and if there are sustainable numbers to justify scheduling Mass at that time. This would mean a Mass or Masses no longer be scheduled, with relevant Mass intentions transferred to other Masses.

Time for Review

CHY3 TAX REBATE FORMS.

Over the next few weeks, parishioners who have contributed over €250 in any given year over the last 4 years will receive a CHY3 form in the post. The CHY3 form covers a 5-year period of contributions. You are invited to complete this form if you are a taxpayer and return it. This form will allow the parish to benefit from a tax rebate on the total sum paid in any given year. This money will go toward the ongoing works currently underway in both churches. Thank you in advance for your generous support and for taking time to complete the form. If you have any questions, please email the parish at parishofshurle3@gmail.com.

AUTUMN DUES

Thank You for Your Continuing Support

Autumn Dues envelopes are now available at the back of the church for those who do not use the envelope system. If you are using the envelopes available at church, and are planning to apply for charity tax rebate, please write your name and envelope number on envelope.

What are Dues Envelopes?: The Autumn Dues envelopes along with Christmas and Autumn Dues pay the salary of the priest of the parish, diocesan levy (calculated by curates salary) and contribute to the support of retired clergy, clergy working in offices and clergy in underprivileged areas of the diocese. The current salary for the priest of the diocese is €1450 per calendar month.

What is the Weekly Offertory Collection for then?

It is a common misunderstanding that the weekly offertory collection is for the priest. In actually fact, the weekly offertory collections is for the upkeep and running of the parish. It does not form any part of the priest's income or salary. Thank You in advance for your continued support and generosity in these difficult and challenging times.

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THAT'S "IN THE SEA," NOT "BY THE POND."

I DON'T WANT IT IN THE SEA, I WANT IT OVER THERE BY THE POND.

HOMEBOUND & NURSING HOME

If you would like the priest to call or visit you or a family member in the parish or at a nursing home, please email the parish at parishofshurle3@gmail.com. Please provide name of person, contact number and Eircode if homebound or name of person & nursing home. Homebound is termed as those who are unable to leave their home - this may be permanent or during winter or if they are ill or sick at the moment. Please note it is hoped shortly to begin communion for the homebound, where family members and/or neighbours will be invited to bring communion to the homebound during the week and/or at weekends.

GLENCORRIB & DISTRICT CRAFT & UPCYCLING GROUP

is meeting every Thursday in Glencorrib Community Centre at 7pm. All are very welcome to join the group (women & men) from the parish and outside the parish. It looks a like a good group to join for the winter months ahead and it's also great way of getting to know people in the area. For further info ☎ / Text Petrina on 087 6719950.

JUST A THOUGHT

"Honesty is the best policy. If I lose mine honour, I lose myself". William Shakespeare

Henry Kissinger aged 99 and still giving advice on the Russian invasion of Ukraine. He is a veteran politician who served several presidents including Richard Nixon. He's known both honour and dishonour in politics. At the end of his third volume of memoirs, Kissinger tells a story about his father who had led the family out of Nazi Germany to the safe haven of America. While Henry Kissinger was serving in the US Army in Europe his father fell ill and had to undergo major surgery from which he was not expected to recover. He penned a letter for his two sons in case he died.

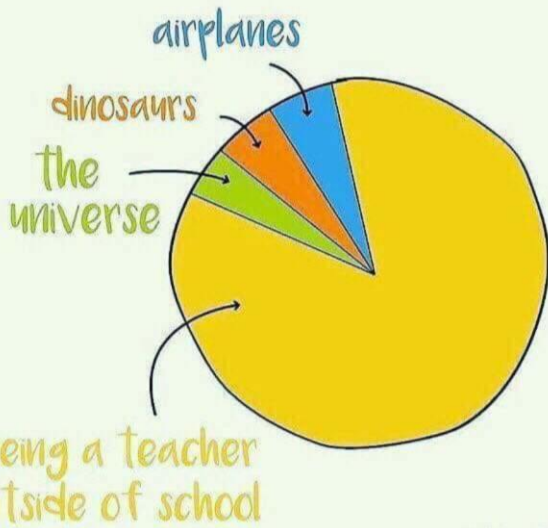

In it he laid down the principles by which they should live. "Do always your duty toward your mother ... to your relatives, to the community, to this great country, to yourselves." Then having expressed his confidence in God to protect them both, he ended: "Always keep in mind that we find real satisfaction only in what we are doing for others. Try always to be good, faithful, helpful, reliable and selfless."

As it happened his father lived another 36 years and long enough to judge whether or not his son had abided by this advice. But the letter laid down the principle of honour in public life. It is a 'must' for everyone

GUARDIAN ANGELS

Comments of St. Padre Pio on Guardian Angels

- "Do not forget this invisible companion, always present to listen to you; always ready to console you."
- "Your Guardian Angel prays for you; offers to God all the good works you accomplish; your holy and pure desires."
- "Invoke your Guardian Angel that he will illuminate you and will guide you. God has given him to you for this reason. Therefore use him!"
- "Often remember his presence; thank him; pray to him; respect him; be in constant fear of offending the purity of his gaze."
- "Our Guardian Angel never leaves us, even when we are disgusting God with our behavior!"
- "For people that live alone there is the Guardian Angel."
- "When you seem to be alone, here a friendly soul to whom you can unburden yourself and in whom you can confide your sorrows."
- "Our Guardian Angel prays constantly for us."
- "Let us confide to our Guardian Angel our pains and sorrows. He is like a friend, like a brother."

I REMEMBER, I REMEMBER

I remember, I remember,
The house where I was born,
The little window where the sun
Came peeping in at morn;
He never came a wink too soon,
Nor brought too long a day,
But now, I often wish the night
Had borne my breath away!

I remember, I remember,
The roses, red and white,
The vi'lets, and the lily-cups,
Those flowers made of light!
The lilacs where the robin built,
And where my brother set
The laburnum on his birthday,—
The tree is living yet!

I remember, I remember,
Where I was used to swing,
And thought the air must rush as fresh
To swallows on the wing;
My spirit flew in feathers then,
That is so heavy now,
And summer pools could hardly cool
The fever on my brow!

I remember, I remember,
The fir trees dark and high;
I used to think their slender tops
Were close against the sky:
It was a childish ignorance,
But now 'tis little joy
To know I'm farther off from heav'n
Than when I was a boy. By Thomas Hood

YES, BUT I HAVE SOMETHING HE WILL NEVER HAVE...ENOUGH." ...

John Bogle The Vanguard founder who passed away a while ago told a story about money that highlights something we don't think about enough: At a party given by a billionaire on Shelter Island, Kurt Vonnegut informs his pal, Joseph Heller, that their host, a hedge fund manager, had made more money in a single day than Heller had earned from his wildly popular novel 'Catch-22' over its whole history. Heller responds, "Yes, but I have something he will never have...enough." ...

TRUE STORY - THE THREE BEES.

My dad has bees. Today I went to his house and he showed me all of the honey he had gotten from the hives. He took the lid off of a 5 gallon bucket full of honey and on top of the honey there were 3 little bees, struggling. They were covered in sticky honey and drowning. I asked him if we could help them and he said he was sure they wouldn't survive. Casualties of honey collection I suppose.

I asked him again if we could at least get them out and kill them quickly, after all he was the one who taught me to put a suffering animal (or bug) out of its misery. He finally conceded and scooped the bees out of the bucket. He put them in an empty yogurt container and put the plastic container outside.

Because he had disrupted the hive with the earlier honey collection, there were bees flying all over outside. We put the 3 little bees in the container on a bench and left them to their fate. My dad called me out a little while later to show me what was happening. These three little bees were surrounded by all of their sisters (all of the bees are females) and they were cleaning the sticky nearly dead bees, helping them to get all of the honey off of their bodies. We came back a short time later and there was only one little bee left in the container. She was still being tended to by her sisters.

When it was time for me to leave we checked one last time and all three of the bees had been cleaned off enough to fly away and the container was empty.

Those three little bees lived because they were surrounded by family and friends who would not give up on them, family and friends who refused to let them drown in their own stickiness and resolved to help until the last little bee could be set free. Bee Sisters. Bee Peers. Bee Teammates. We could all learn a thing or two from these bees. Bee kind always. ~ Arthur unknown
