Call for New Members in the Community Hall: Every thriving community is built on the contribution of dedicated volunteers and supporters. 40 years of the community centre has been sustained with this spirit. To continue to develop we are now appealing for new volunteers and supporters. If you believe you can spare some time for volunteering in the hall, please consider becoming member and getting involved. Please take a membership letter at the church door and return it to the church, hall or Keane's Shop next weekend.
