Flourish Social Prescribing Service

This service is available in Cúram every Monday. Social Prescribing is all about connecting to people, activities, hobbies, and new interests so as to keep us healthy and well. The Flourish service is ideal for any adult who feels they would like to explore ways to meet new people, develop new interests and hobbies. Flourish can support your health and wellbeing by linking you with activities, supports, and resources based in your community such as social groups, arts & creativity, physical activities, learning new skills, further education, outdoor activities, support groups and ways to self-care. Flourish offers a supportive and enjoyable way for people to do this and make the most out of their lives. For more information please email: flourish@thefamilycentre.com or phone 094 9025900

Corpus Christi

The Corpus Christi Procession will once again take place (Weather Permitting), after the 8pm Mass next Saturday 18th June at Ballindine Church.

There will be seats reserved for the 1st Communion children ONLY, at the top of the church. The Communion Children will sit together and family members can sit elsewhere in the church.

The congregation, including those carrying flags and banners, must leave the church FIRST – followed by the Choir. PLEASE

FOLLOW THE STEWARDS INSTRUCTIONS.

The 1st Communion children, will be the LAST leaving the church, just in front of Fr.

O`Connor who will be carrying the Most Holy Blessed Sacrament under a Canopy.

There will be two parents from each school assigned to look after the children and to keep them all together in the Procession.

The Procession Route will be from the Church main door, through the carpark, along the footpath and in through the old avenue for Benediction and prayers at the gable end of the church. Everyone is asked to please be reverent during the procession and to join in the singing and praying of the Rosary.

Please pray for fine weather and that everyone will Keep Safe.

The Tuam Diocesan

Pilgrimage to Lourdes, led by Archbishop Francis Duffy, will depart Knock Airport on 25 August for five nights. For enquiries and bookings, please contact Sheila Davin 086 8664633.

Baptism: We welcome into the Christian Community Thomas William Cummins, baptised in Irishtown Church and congratulate his parents John & Siobhán, Kilvine, Irishtown.
