Sunday 10th July – 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

*“Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands’ hands?”
 “The one who took pity on him,” he replied.
 Jesus said to him “Go, and do the same yourself.”*

Priest: Fr Chris Brennan Mob (087) 1962 674 Email: parishig2017@gmail.com
Newsletter: Liam Keaveney Mob (087) 1361 895 Email: islandeadyadm@gmail.com

In today's readings, we witness the great virtue of charity as it is put before us today. It is the virtue by which we love God above all things for his own sake, and our neighbour as ourselves for the love of God. This is the new commandment of Jesus. He tells us to love one another as he has loved us. The story of the Good Samaritan is to show us that this is a virtue well within our reach.

Thought for the week

The moral of the story of the Good Samaritan is that you should put aside your differences and help those who are in need of help. The Samaritan did not think about the race or religion of the man; he just saw a man who needed help. We too can all be Good Samaritans!
