A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOUR:

Driver: "And what am I supposed to do with this speeding ticket, Garda?"
Garda: "Save them up and when you have four of them, you can get a bicycle.!"

"QUOTE / UNQUOTE"

- "Democracy means government by discussion but it is only effective if you can stop people talking." -C. Atlee.
- "Asking a working writer what he feels about critics is like asking a lamp-post how it feels about dogs." -Christopher Hampton.
- "Conscience is the inner voice that warns us somebody may be looking." -H. L. Mencken.
- "It takes really only one to make a quarrel. It is useless for the sheep to pass resolutions in favour of vegetarianism while the wolf remains of a different opinion." -Dean Inge.

KILL ABBEY: Murgagagh Abbey is only a short distance from the village Shrule. This ruinous abbey and graveyard is also known as 'Killeenbrenan of the Virgin' and 'Kille Abbey'. Many aspects of the history of Murgagagh have been forgotten but we do know that it was founded around 1428 on the site of an earlier church. The abbey was possibly the first and most important houses of the Third Order of St Francis to be established in Ireland, and was built with the help of the De Burgo family. The order is thought to have been established by St Francis himself for married men and women who wished for a Franciscan life. Murgagagh Abbey is a beautiful place to visit and we are having an information meeting on what will be happening over the next few months on how to maintain the site etc. The meeting will take place in Shrule Hall on Monday 21st February from 3pm to 5pm. If you know anyone that might be interested in our local history can you let them know. Mayo Co. Co. Archaeologist will have an update.

STAMP DONATIONS: You may have seen the box of stamps in Shrule post office, or the box in Glencorrib church porch? These used stamps are collected by a religious order based in Dublin called 'Handmaids of the Sacred Hearts' who recycle the stamps so they can be sold to stamp collectors. The money raised from this is used to give financial support to various projects the order is involved in around the world. They have sent some booklets which are available in the church porches with information on the work they are able to do as a result of your support. Thank you for your kind support, and if you have not recycled your old stamps, maybe you will consider doing it now?

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

CHURCH & CREATIVITY- FINDING A WAY FORWARD

Hearing the call from Pope Francis - a new way forward through the process of consultation with all in the church (Synod). An exciting way to move forward from the Covid experience. Michael A. Conway is a priest of the diocese of Galway, who teaches Theology at St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, where he is Professor of Faith and Culture. He has studied both in science and in theology in Ireland, Italy, and Germany. As part of his work, he explores issues of faith and religion in contemporary European culture with a specific concern for the Irish situation. He gives talks regularly on the changing face of religion, spirituality, and faith throughout Ireland. Michael's presentation will explore the impact of Covid on Church life, paying attention to the possibilities that are now emerging in terms of: Discovering, setting up, and following a synodal path (the way Pope Francis invited us to plan the way forward in the church). Date: Wednesday March 30th. Time: 7.30pm Fee: Donation
 Venue: Croi Nua Spirituality Centre, Rosary Lane, Taylor's Hill, Galway (H91WY2A)
 Phone: 091 520960 or 087 2980564 Website: www.croinua.com Croi Nua Spirituality Centre

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOUR: The preacher said: "There is no such thing as a perfect man. Anybody present who has ever known a perfect man, please stand up." Nobody stood up. "Those who have ever known a perfect woman, please stand up." One demure little woman stood up. "Did you ever know an absolutely perfect woman?" he asked her, somewhat amazed. I didn't know her personally", replied the little old woman, "but I have heard a great deal about her. She was my husband's first wife."

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS: Heavenly Father, we praise you and thank you for all you have done for us. We thank you especially for sending your Son, Jesus Christ, to visit and save us. We ask you to bless our family and all the people of our parish, especially those who are suffering in any way. Encourage those in our parish whom you invite to become priests, religious and permanent deacons, and grant them the generosity of mind and heart to follow your call. May they bring good news to our world today. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

GLENCORRIB KILROE COMMUNITY CENTRE NEWS

With many of the Covid19 restrictions now being lifted. Some groups are looking to book the community centre again. As COVID-19 numbers remain high, it's important to continue to put safety first.

Keep groups small: Gatherings should not be larger than 25 people and should not occur in spaces that do not permit social distancing.

Support hand hygiene: Please use the hand sanitizer at the door on entry and exit of the community centre. This can greatly reduce the transmission of germs on shared surfaces.

Wear your mask: Like social distancing, wearing a mask is an extremely effective way to limit the transmission of respiratory illnesses.

Avoid offering food during the meeting: Self explanatory

Speak up: As a meeting organizer, make sure that you know these rules and feel comfortable talking to other attendees about safety. Consider having the host or speaker remind the group of safety best practices before the meeting starts. We are all in this together and that means helping each other stay safe

To book the community centre, please ☎ Dell Maye on 087 7542740.
