EASTER DUES – THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUING SUPPORT

Easter Dues envelopes are now available at the back of the church for those who do not use the envelope system. If you are using the envelopes available at church, and are planning to apply for charity tax rebate, please write your name and envelope number on envelope.

What are Dues Envelopes? The Easter Dues envelopes along with Christmas and Autumn Dues pay the salary of the priest of the parish, diocesan levy (calculated by curate's salary) and contribute to the support of retired clergy, clergy working in offices and clergy in underprivileged areas of the diocese. The current salary for the priest of the diocese is €1,450 per calendar month.

What is the Weekly Offertory Collection for then? It is a common misunderstanding that the weekly offertory collection is for the priest. In actuality fact, the weekly offertory collections is for the upkeep and running of the parish. It does not form any part of the priest's income or salary.

Thank you in advance for your continued support & generosity in these difficult and challenging times.

THE MONTH OF MAY

Today is 1st May, the third Sunday of Easter. Be with us O Lord in the month of May, month of the Virgin Mary, beginning of summer, month of the cuckoo, month of flowers.

The Pope's intention for this month:

We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates and the dedication to service.

BRING FLOWERS OF THE RAREST

Bring flow'rs of the fairest,
Bring flow'rs of the rarest,
From garden and woodland
And hillside and vale;
Our full hearts are swelling,
Our Glad voices telling
The praise of the loveliest
Rose of the vale.

O Mary! We crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May,
O Mary! we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May

We invite you to begin to prepare a May altar in your home following an old tradition of honouring the Blessed Virgin in homes during the month of May.

POPE FRANCIS AND EASTER

A few moments into giving his Easter Sunday Urbi et Orbi address the Pope paused and sat down. At the end, he stood up again to give the blessing. Throughout the Triduum the Vatican made the necessary arrangements so that Francis, whose severe leg pain is causing him mobility problems, could take part in the liturgies. Francis is showing himself ready to adapt his ministry to his physical limitations. On Holy Thursday he washed the feet of 12 prisoners in Civitavecchia who sat on a raised platform so he did not have to kneel down, while Cardinal Giovanni Battista Re, the Dean of the College of Cardinals, presided at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday evening in St Peter's, with the Pope giving the homily while sitting. Although Francis now struggles to stand and walk, he is not slowing down. He refuses to take days off and on the afternoon of Easter Monday; he was out in St Peter's Square again for a meeting with around 80,000 Italian teenagers.

GALWAY CELEBRATES THE CONSECRATION OF A NEW BISHOP

This weekend Bishop Michael Duignan will take up the reins as bishop of Galway in addition to his job as Bishop of Clonfert (ie. Loughrea, Ballinasloe & Portumna areas). A bit of consolidation has taken place in the area of local church governance and management and that's no harm. We welcome him with open arms and pray God blessing upon him. He will be the "Managing Director" for the Catholic Church in the area - 38 parishes in Galway and 24 in Clonfert - a total of about 150,000 people.

I don't know to man personally but he seems to be a very personable able energetic man. He has been Bishop of Clonfert since 2019 and is well liked. He was born in Athlone, in 1970, the eldest of six siblings. He was ordained as a priest for the Diocese of Elphin on 17 July 1994, He seems a modern man for modern times and we look forward to his guidance and inspiration. Society in general needs inspirational leaders and we trust our new Bishop will be one. A couple of years ago he wrote the following piece about being a Bishop in today's Ireland which gives us a flavour about his approach.

"One of the good things about studying theology is that you study the history of the Church. It gives you a good insight into the changes that have occurred down through the centuries. Soon you realise that the Church has always faced difficulties and challenges. Some of those challenges make the challenges that we have today seem small indeed. However, we do face challenges and the next few years will bring significant changes to our church communities. Falling numbers participating in the life of our parishes coupled with a lack of finances and resources along with a lack of clergy will not be without consequences. I take solace from a belief that God never abandons his people.

On the flip side of every challenge there lies an opportunity. With the help of the Holy Spirit, my hope would be that we, the laity, priests and bishop, together can work out new structures and new ways of doing things that will be more suitable to the situation we find ourselves in. Please God this will allow us to move from spending a lot of our time propping up things that are eventually going to fall down to a situation where the Church, although reduced in number, can better live and share the joy of Christian faith - especially with our young people and those on the margins of the Church and society". [Oct 2020]. Have a good week.

Fr. Gerry Jennings PP Salthill Parish.

THE UNMASKING OF THE 'SPECIAL ONE'

Although he once described himself in messianic terms as the "special one", José Mourinho has told a cardinal that he has grown in humility. The current head coach of Italian Serie A club Roma recently took part in a lengthy discussion with his Portuguese compatriot, Cardinal José Tolentino de Mendono, published recently in L'Osservatore Romano. For years, Mourinho told the cardinal, a poet and writer who runs the Vatican Library, he wanted to win "for himself", but now he is motivated to win "for players who have never won" and for the "ordinary fan". The former manager of Chelsea, Real Madrid and Manchester United talked about the importance of his faith and revealed that he likes to visit St Peter's Square at night, wearing a mask to avoid being recognised.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH NEWS

FIRST HOLY COMMUNICANTS: We wish to congratulate the 9 candidates from St. Joseph's NS, Shrule who received their first Holy Communion this weekend, Saturday 30th April 2022. We thank their parents, teachers, Fr. Vivian and everyone who helped out.

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOUR:

- A woman with a salad walked past a man in a restaurant and said, "You know a cow died so you could eat that steak", and I replied, "If you weren't eating its food, it might have lived."
- Electricity is a great thing. Without it, we would be watching television by candlelight.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH NEWS - FIRST HOLY COMMUNICANTS:

We wish to congratulate the 9 candidates from St. Joseph's NS, Shrule who received their first Holy Communion this weekend, Saturday 30th April 2022. We thank their parents, teachers, Fr. Vivian and everyone who helped out. Many blessings to our First Communicants and their families. How wonderful it is to be able to receive the Holy Eucharist to be nourished and encouraged on the path of Christian discipleship.

Over a hundred years ago, a little girl in northern France made her first communion. She had prepared for it; she had looked forward to it with excitement. And the day finally came. This is how she described the first time she received Jesus. "I felt that I was loved, and I said to Jesus, 'I love you and I give myself to you forever...'" "It was a fusion: Jesus and I were no longer two, I had vanished in him as a drop of water vanishes in the ocean. Jesus alone remained." She ended her description of her first communion by recalling the joy she felt that day – and the joy she experienced every time she received Christ in the Eucharist.

Today that little girl is one of the most famous saints in the Catholic Church – St Therese of Lisieux. She illustrates that joy flows from the certainty of being infinitely loved by God. And every time we receive the Eucharist, we receive a living reminder of God's love for us.

We too can say: "I know that I am loved. And that certainty brings a joy that nothing can take away, because I am safe in the hands of Jesus."

I would like to thank everyone who prepared these boys and girls to receive their first Holy Communion. I would also like to remind the parents of children that it is how you live and how you practice your faith in the family that is going to influence your children. Hence, continue training them in the Christian faith and its practice, not by advice but by exemplary Christian lives.

Pray for Vocations

VOCATIONS SUNDAY

"At the heart of the Christian vocation is an invitation, the same invitation Jesus extended to the first disciples, to 'come, follow me... I will make you fish for people'." - Archbishop Dermot Farrell.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations will be observed on Sunday next 8th May 2022. That weekend, priests and parishes are invited to pray for vocations to the priesthood in the diocese. In his message for Vocations Sunday Pope Francis says, "The first word of vocation, then, is gratitude. Taking the right course is not something we do on our own, nor does it depend solely on the road we choose to travel. How we find fulfilment in life is more than a decision we make as isolated individuals; above all else, it is a response to a call from on high."

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOUR:

A factory manager found that production was being hampered by the tardiness of his people returning from the lunch hour. When the whistle blew, few were at their machines. He posted a sign by the suggestion box offering a cash award for the best answer to this question: "What should we do to insure that every person will be inside the factory when the whistle blows?" "Let the last person in blow the whistle."

What God looks like

What God Looks Like

A kindergarten teacher was observing her classroom of children while they drew. She would occasionally walk around to see each child's artwork. As she came to one little girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was.

The girl replied, "I'm drawing God."

The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like."

Without missing a beat, or looking up from her drawing the girl replied, ". . ." "They will in a minute."

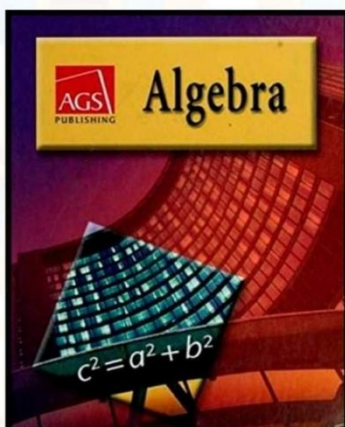

Let me seek then, the gift of silence, and poverty, and solitude, where everything I touch is turned into prayer.

Where the sky is my prayer, the birds are my prayer, the wind in the trees is my prayer, for God is in all.
