Joy is not based on our circumstances, but on our ability to choose to be thankful regardless of our circumstances!

Killawalla Community Council is organising a walk to show support to Charlie Bird, who is raising funds for two very worthy charities – Irish Motor Neuron Disease and Pieta. Charlie has asked people to get behind him to show support and to climb or walk with him in spirit to help him raise funds for these two vital charities.

Our walk is happening April 3rd 2022 at 1pm, departing from the Killawalla Community Centre. The return trip is approx. 6km and refreshments will be available on return. Everyone is welcome. More details in later newsletters and on Facebook page.

Census 2022 has begun. Enumerators will be calling to houses around the area wearing hi-vis vests in the coming weeks delivering your census form. Thank you for your cooperation.
