*Since the wine provided for the wedding was finished,
the mother of Jesus said to him:
‘They have no wine.’*

Jesus said: ‘Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not come yet.’

Priest: Fr Chris Brennan Mob (087) 1962 674 Email: parishig2017@gmail.com
Newsletter: Liam Keaveney Mob (087) 1361 895 Email: islandeadyadm@gmail.com

In today's Gospel, we are informed that the fulfilment of God's promise is compared to a wedding feast. The wine that flows in plenty speaks of the joy of the kingdom.

The Parish of Islandeady/Glenisland welcome Bishop Francis Duffy who was installed as Archbishop of Tuam last Sunday. We wish him many years of health & happiness in his new role. We wish Archbishop Neary a long, healthy & humble retirement.
"Today I assume my responsibilities as Archbishop of Tuam. I come here knowing very few and so I really look forward to getting to know the priests, religious and parishioners as I move around and meet a great variety of people." – Archbishop Francis Duffy.

The National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland has conducted a review of safeguarding practice in the Archdiocese of Tuam, and its final report was received recently. Archbishop Neary has welcomed the findings of the report and its positive assessment of the application of the 7 Safeguarding Standards right across the Archdiocese. Thanks to the priests and local safeguarding representatives, volunteers and youth workers, parish & diocesan personnel, the diocesan safeguarding committee, the diocesan Case Management Committee, the Designated Liaison Persons and those who deliver safeguarding training. You can view the report on:

Thought for the Week

The wedding in Cana was the wedding of the decade, with fabulous catering!
But the point of the story is to reveal Christ's glory so that we may have faith in him!

This sermon unpacks two related points:

1. We see that Christ is the one, full of love, who is concerned for the ordinary events in our lives and who desires to bless us with abundance.
2. We see that when there is troubles in life, we can turn to Jesus and act in faith, even when we don't understand or feel faith.
This is what it means to have faith in Jesus.

In light of the tragic death of Ashling Murphy in Tullamore during the week.....
We pray for her grieving family & for an end to violence against women!
