A Prayer for Spring: Daffodils

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills.

When all at once I saw a crowd,

A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine

And twinkle on the Milky Way,
They stretched in never-ending line

Along the margin of a bay:

Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance
The waves beside them danced, but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee:

A poet could not but be gay

In such a jocund company;

I gazed--and gazed--but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought:

For oft, when on my couch I lie

In vacant or in pensive mood,

They flash upon that inward eye

Which is the bliss of solitude;

And then my heart with pleasure fills,

And dances with the daffodils

Prayer

Lord, come into our world which needs the peace of your love and the joy of your presence.
Come into the lives of those who are troubled;
help me to be the one who can show the reality of your love and presence in word and deed.
Lord, show me your ways and your paths.
Teach me your truth. Fill me with your love
so I can share it with others. Amen.
