Glencorrib Church Bell 60th Anniversary commemoration will take place at 2pm at Glencorrib Church on Sunday 8th October 2023. At the moment we are researching the history of the bell and its construction. We have a newspaper article from the Connacht Tribune dated 14th September 1963 where it states that John Rattigan from Milltown was the builder. Simon J Kelly, Galway was the architect and the bell maker was M. Byrne Bell Makers. The bell was presented by John Harte of Mounthenry in memory of his brother James Harte who passed away in January 1960. We need your help. We are producing a leaflet for the 60th anniversary. Were you there in September 1963 when the bell was blessed by Bishop Michael Browne? Do you know of anyone else who was there? Do you know the names of any people who were involved in its construction? Do you have a photo of either James or John Harte? It would be great to add a few lines of local history to the leaflet. If you have some information on the Bell, the tower or Harte family, you are invited to a special meeting in Glencorrib Kilroe Community Centre on Monday 18th September @ 8pm. You can also phone Kevin Flood on 086 3782156 if you would like to help but can't attend the meeting. Thanks.

Would your child(ren) be interested in becoming an altar server?

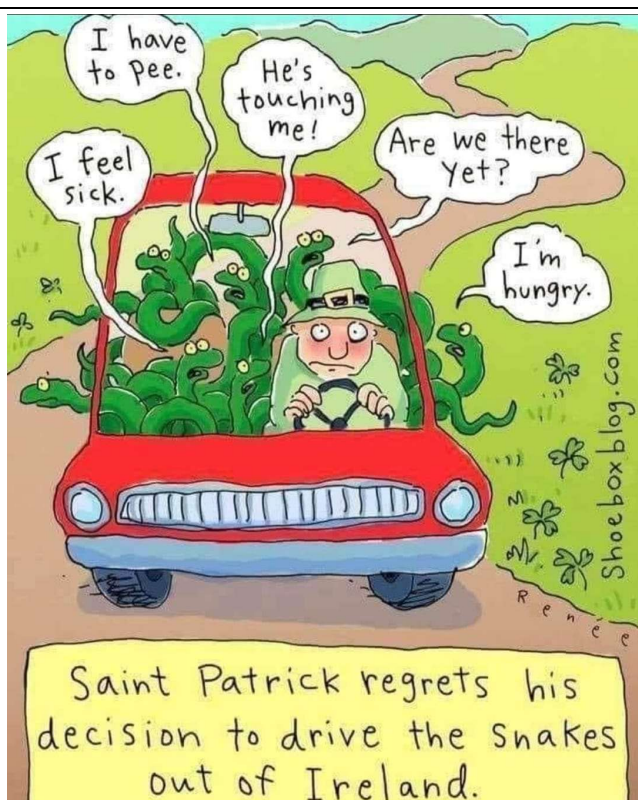

Pupils from third class upward are welcome to become altar servers – no experience necessary!

It is a long tradition in families that children become altar servers, just as their mom and dad before them. Altar servers have a long history in the church and in celebration of various liturgies, especially on weekends. Apart from enhancing the way liturgy is celebrated, becoming an altar server allows a child to grow in confidence and self-esteem by working and carrying out various activities in public, along with learning collaboration, teamwork, cooperation, and communication skills that are the basic blocks of society and the social framework.

The aim, depending on numbers, will be to form teams that will be put into a Rota. It would be hoped that each team would have pupils from various classes allowing the students to learn from each other. While this will be the guide in forming teams, every effort will be made to accommodate pupils and parents/guardians.

Finally, in line with child safety policy, each team is required to have TWO adult supervisors. Clergy count as 1, so another adult is required. The previous policy whereby parents/guardians of a team would take it in turns to be supervisor will NO LONGER be necessary. This is due to several parents volunteering to take this role. This means that if your child wishes to become an altar server, it will not necessitate you being Garda Vetted.

If your child is interested, or you have further questions feel free to contact the parish at parishofshurle3@gmail.com.

A little bit of humour:

A stranger went into a small country store. There was a notice on the door warning:

"Danger beware of the Dog!".

Inside, he saw a harmless old dog asleep on the floor next to the counter.

"Is that the dog we're to beware of?" he asked.

"Yes, that's him" the shop keeper replied.

"That certainly doesn't look like a dangerous dog. Why did you put up that sign?"

The shopkeeper answered:

"Because before I put that sign there, people kept tripping over him."
